General rental conditions

§1 The tenant undertakes to maintain valid home insurance for the entire rental period.

§2 The rental object is rented out for the use as the tenant's residence. The tenant does not have the right to use the rental object for any other purpose.

§3 The tenant undertakes to take good care of, respect the rental object and maintain order and cleanliness. The tenant is not responsible for damage caused by normal wear and tear.

§4 The tenant must immediately notify the landlord and property owner of issues such as water damage, pests or other significant damages.

§5 Upon move-out, the tenant must clean and restore the rental object to its original condition.

§6 The tenant is responsible for damage or loss of furniture and the rental object, including damage caused by family members, guests, contractors hired by the tenant.

§7 If damages occur due to the tenant's fault or negligence, the landlord has the right to retain the deposit to cover costs. The deposit may be used for: unpaid rent, damage to the rental object, furniture, or fittings, cleaning costs, other costs related to the sublease.

§8 Responsibility for the proper functioning of vital appliances such as electrical switches, washing machine, gaskets in water taps etc. rests with the landlord in accordance with the signed agreement with the property owner. In cases where the landlord is the property owner, the responsibility lies with him/her. The Tenant is responsible for minor maintenance costs, provided the issue is not due to normal wear and tear or structural defects.

§9 The tenant may not, without the landlord's written permission, carry out painting, wallpapering or comparable measures. The tenant may not drill or nail on walls or ceiling without the landlord's written permission.

§10 If inventory is included (according to the attached inventory list), it is the tenant's responsibility to acknowledge the inventory by signing the inventory list. After the end of the rental period, it is the responsibility of the landlord to sign the tenant's copy of the inventory list or in some other way acknowledge the restoration of the inventory.

§11 The rental object may not be sublet further.

§12 The tenant undertakes to respect the rules of order the landlord has to observe in relation to the property owner. The tenant also undertakes to take neighbors and others in their surroundings into account, which means, among other things, that the tenant must not disturb neighbors and others in the vicinity of the rental object in a way that should not reasonably be tolerated.

§13 The tenant is always responsible for costs related to the calling of security emergency, as well as equivalent costs incurred due to negligence and/or carelessness.

§14 The tenant must return all keys when moving out (1 key to the apartment, 1 key to the mailbox and 1 electronic key to the main entrance and shared spaces). If any key is missing, the tenant is responsible for replacing the lock or lock cylinder. The landlord shall have the right to keep his own copies of the keys to the rental object during the rental period. Access may only occur with prior notice, except in urgent situations.

§15 Electricity costs are included up to 500:- SEK per month. Any excess consumption will be charged to the tenant.

§16 Smoking and animals are strictly prohibited in the rental object.

§17 The landlord has the right to terminate the agreement in accordance with applicable Swedish rental law in case of serious breach of contract.

§18 The paid deposit is returned to the tenant no later than 10 working days after the rental period ended, unless the terms stated in §7.

§19 When moving out, the tenant must, unless otherwise agreed upon, remove the property belonging to him and restore the rental object to an acceptable condition.

§20 The tenant undertakes to keep the rental object available for maintenance.

§21 The landlord shall have the right, during the rental period, to access the apartment for the purpose of photography, styling, and preparation for a future sale of the apartment. Such access shall be exercised with reasonable notice (at least 48 hours in advance) and at a time agreed upon with the tenant. The landlord shall ensure that the tenant's privacy is respected and that any personal belongings of the tenant are not photographed or are removed/covered prior to photography. The tenant undertakes to reasonably cooperate in facilitating such access, provided that it does not cause undue inconvenience.

§22 The Landlord shall have the right to show the apartment to prospective buyers or tenants during the rental period, with reasonable prior notice and at mutually agreed times.

§23 The Tenant waives any right to security of tenure (right of possession) for this sublease.
